Our Vision Statement

We, at Glencross, as part of the body of Christ, are committed to obeying the commands God has set forth in His Word (the Bible) through

- i) Worshipping God
- ii) Evangelizing the unbeliever
- iii) Discipling the believer

THIS WEEK

Tuesday 7:30 - Mission Board meeting at church

TAKE NOTE

Discipleship Classes will be starting on Sunday March 4th during the Sunday School hour. This is a 7 week commitment which will be completed by mid April. If you are interested in Baptism or transferring your membership, please contact anyone of the Ministerial members today.

Wednesday, March 7 - 7:00 PM-9:00 PM - Jr. Youth @ Winkler Bible Camp. We've been invited to watch the dress rehearsal for "Uncle Phil's Diner". Admission is free.

We are planning to have a choir for Easter Sunday morning with practices starting on March 11. The practices will be during Sunday School time. If you have further questions, contact Allen or Shirley.

From the Program Committee: There are extra 3-month schedules (April-June) on the back counter under the mailboxes for those who did not receive a copy in their mailbox and would like one. (If you are scheduled during these months, you should have received one in your mailbox).

The Glencross Church is people; not a building. Jesus said "I will build my church," that means building people like you and me!! That also requires people like you and me to help in serving in whatever capacity God has gifted us. Here at Glencross we have particular needs in the area of S.S. Superintendent; Christian Ed. Director; and Recorder Reporter. Talk to God about it; and then to any Ministries member or Council member about your willingness to be involved. God will reward you...The Leadership.

Please join the Salem Foundation for “Faspa, Fellowship and Song” on Sunday, March 11th at the Winkler Bergthaler Mennonite Church. Faspa will be served from 4:00 to 4:45 p.m. The afternoon will include inspirational music by the Baker Hutterite Choir and harpist, Susan Pharaoh. Proceeds from the freewill offering will go towards upgrading of bathroom doors (in the portion of Salem Home built in 1972). Thank You for Making a Difference in Our Resident’s Lives!

March Sunday School Teachers - your new material is ready to be picked up downstairs in the hallway.

Praise & Prayer

1. Please pray for an urgent need to help provide food for the people in Durango, Mexico. Dave & Margaret Penner (from Winkler, working in Mexico) have requested any help that they can receive to help provide food for the people. The situation is so dire that in recent days 40 young mothers have committed suicide instead of watching their children starve. The state was to send food on Thursday, but when it arrived there was very little. MCC is working to send relief but it will take time, time the people do not have. Donations were being taken at the Grace Mennonite Church Winkler last week, if you would like to donate please contact the church to see if donations are still being accepted. Further information is available at <http://gomission.ca/index.php/2012/01/extreme-drought-in-durango-mexico/>
2. Pray for the Missionaries of the week: John & Aggie Froese. CME (Conferencia Misionera Evangelica) - Pastor Couple in El Valle, Mexico.
3. Thank Him for the gift of another day.
