

Special Thanks...

After serving 7 years, Megan Peters has asked to step down as Assistant Sunday School Superintendent. The Christian Education Department would like to thank Megan for her many years of faithful service! Megan has filled this role with joy, commitment, and hard work; even taking on the additional responsibilities of Superintendent during the two year period that the position was vacant. She has been, and continues to be, a great asset to our Sunday School department!

The Christian Education Department would like to welcome Chris Klassen as our new Sunday School Assistant Superintendent! Chris has already been involved in assisting in the S.S. office on Sunday mornings for the past 2 years, and we look forward to working together with her as she serves in her new role as Assistant Superintendent!
